TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The FortFS Rewards Program is a system of constantly updated tasks. Tasks must be completed on social media. After completing the task, its result should be sent for verification. As a reward for successfully completed tasks, participants receive real money to their personal USD safe account (safe accounts start with "8").
2. Rewards Program tasks are available only to registered and verified FortFS clients
3. Tasks will be available across 4 social networks: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Vk
4. All available tasks of the Rewards Program are located in the current tasks section which can be found in the trader's personal account at the Rewards Program section: <https://trader.fortfs.com/rewards>
5. Each task section will contain the following:
 - Name of the corresponding social media where the task should be completed
 - Link to the post that has to be shared on your personal profile via the corresponding social network
 - Field for entering a link to the participant's social network profile
 - Timer indicating a time limit for accepting links to personal profiles of participants
 - Reward for a successfully completed task
 - Counter of links sent by participants
 - Link to instructions for completing tasks and requirements for participants' social media profiles
6. The list and number of tasks vary and may change accordingly
7. The reward amount is set individually for each task and may vary depending on the social network
8. The number of links available for sending is individual, limited and indicated in each task separately
9. The maximum number of links available for sending in a particular task can increase or decrease
10. The deadline for each task can be increased or decreased
11. A section with an active task disappears from the Rewards Program area in the following cases:
 - If the counter of links available for submission is full
 - If the timer has expired
12. The links verification procedure and rewards distribution can take from 1 to 3 business days
13. As a reward for correctly completed tasks, participants are automatically credited the amount specified in the task to their personal USD safe account (all safe accounts start with "8"), a full account list can be accessed via the following link: <https://trader.fortfs.com/accounts/list>
14. Upon receiving the reward, every participant will be notified via email

LIMITS FOR RETENTION, ACCUMULATION AND WITHDRAWAL OF REWARD FUNDS

1. Retention period of reward funds on a safe account is unlimited
2. Reward funds accumulation on a safe account is unlimited
3. There are no limits on the timing of the reward withdrawal, thus, funds can be withdrawn immediately after they are credited to the personal safe account
4. Withdrawal amount limits depend on the restrictions of the payment systems specified on the following page:

https://www.fortfs.com/conditions/payment_systems/withdraw
